

Privacy and Cookie Policy

1. Application

By visiting this website, www.spunkystrings.com (hereafter referred to as the "Website") or placing an order on the Website, you (the "Customer") declare to agree with this policy.

2. Privacy

The Website processes your personal data in accordance with this policy and in accordance with the applicable legislation and regulations. This policy applies to any personal data (as defined hereafter) collected through online sources of Spunky Strings (such as websites, e-mail and other online tools).

Your personal data can only be collected when you decide to grant us access to this data. We will never share your personal data with third parties for use by them for their own marketing purposes, except when you give us your explicit permission to do so.

If you decide to share your personal data, you are entitled to consult and correct your data each time you log into the Website. It is possible that you will be asked to give your permission to use your data for certain purposes. You may approve or refuse this request. If you register for a specific service or notification, such as an e-newsletter, you may cancel your registration at any time by following the instructions stated in such a notification. If you decide to cancel your registration for a service or notification, we will remove your data as soon as possible.

Spunky Strings uses technology and security precautions, regulations and other procedures in order to protect your personal data against unauthorised access, misuse, publication, loss and deletion. In order to guarantee the confidentiality of your data, Spunky Strings also uses standard firewalls and security passwords. However, you must ensure that the computer you are using is sufficiently secured against malware, such as trojans and viruses.

It is possible that you will be given the opportunity on the Website to pass on a link or message referring to a Website of Spunky Strings to a friend or colleague. The e-mail addresses provided by you for this purpose will be used to send the information on behalf of you to your friend or colleague and will not be collected or used by Spunky Strings or third parties for any other purpose.

Spunky Strings may amend its online policy regarding the protection of privacy at any time. Such amendments will be shown on the Website. By continuing to use the Website when you have been notified of any amendments in the policy regarding the protection of privacy, you agree that we may use all new data provided in accordance with the amended policy of Spunky Strings regarding the protection of privacy.

If you have any questions or would like Spunky Strings to correct or delete your profile, we request that you contact us in writing at the address shown in Article 4.

3. Cookies

Spunky Strings uses cookies to improve the user experience of the Website. A cookie is a small text file which is stored on your computer. Cookies enable Spunky Strings to save data on the server and facilitate your visit to the Website. They allow Spunky Strings to analyse the Website and its performance.

A cookie has a (unique) value. It does not contain any personal data. Spunky Strings does not use cookies in order to be able to identify you directly or through services of third parties.

Spunky Strings uses Google Analytics, an internet analysis service provided by Google, Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses cookies to evaluate your use of the Website, to generate reports regarding website activity and to provide other services regarding website activity and internet use. More information on these cookies can be found at <https://developers.google.com/analytics/devguides/collection/analyticsjs/cookie-usage>.

Other cookies used by Spunky Strings have a functional nature.

If you do not allow the use of cookies, you may change the settings of your browser in such a manner that you will be shown a message when a cookie is placed or to allow you to prevent the use of cookies. This may mean that you will not be able to use all functionalities of the Website or that they may not function in an optimal manner.
